1.The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2.Claim 17 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bishop (5,019,312) in view of Baron (4,954,209). Bishop discloses or suggests the basic claimed method of making lugs for joints in a bicycle frame made of composite fiber tubes including (1) making a lay-up of at least carbon or graphite fibers (column 3, lines 41-52) and a matrix material around the joint, (2) applying a mold to the tubes and laid up fibers and matrix material, and (3) curing or causing reaction and setting (column 5, line 11) of the lug in the mold. Bishop discloses at column 5, lines 4-10 that during the molding step, "layers 40 which face each other adjacent the central plane of the frame will be forced into firm contact with each other so that the will become permanently resin-bonded to each other, as well as to the successive other layers 40 on each side of the finished joint". Bishop appears not to teach a specific additional step to achieve the aforementioned forcing into firm contact, but Baron, at column 3, lines 40-50 notes that such forcing or compaction pressure may be achieved by lining a mold with a silicon material and causing the silicon material to expand to apply a compaction pressure to the lay-up. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to incorporate this teaching of Baron into the method of Bishop in order to efficiently provide a force or compaction pressure to force components of the lay-up into firm contact with each other.

3.Claim 20 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
